

NBCSN

LIST OF ACCEPTABLE SCHOOL HEALTH-RELATED BACCALAUREATE DEGREES

- Arts: Natural Sciences: Biochemistry, Chemistry, Human Ecology
- Biology: Evolution-Behavior, Human Biology, Microbiology, Cell Biology, Neurobiology
- Communication Sciences and Disorders
- Counseling
- Education: Applied Learning and Development (Early Childhood through grade 6, Special Education), Health Education, Health Promotion, Health and Physical Education
- Geosciences: Environmental Sciences
- Health Education, Community Health Education
- Health Organization Management, Healthcare Administration
- Human Development: Early Childhood, Child Development, Families and Personal Relationships, Families and Society
- Liberal Arts: Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Human Ecology
- Nursing Informatics
- Nutrition: Including Dietetics, Nutritional Sciences, International Nutrition
- Occupational Therapy
- Pharmacy: Including Medicinal Chemistry, Pharmaceutics, Pharmacology and Toxicology, Pharmacotherapy
- Physical Therapy
- Psychology
- Public Health
- Social Work
- Sociology

While this is not to be considered an exhaustive list, the NBCSN board of directors considers this list to include the degrees relevant to school nursing. If you have a different health-related degree that you believe is relevant you may request that we consider it. Any degree not included in this list may incur a decision that you are not eligible and a $75.00 audit fee will be deducted from the refund of your application fee.